

World No Tobacco Day 2025: Unmasking the Appeal!

Nicotine Pouches White Snus Old Poison in a New Coat

Join us for an insightful webinar on the rising trend of nicotine pouches/white snus, particularly among young people. As healthcare professionals, we will support the theme of World No Tobacco Day 2025 and shed light on how the industry markets addiction. By promoting demand reduction efforts, we aim to support public health in the long term.
